Dear Mr. Casey:

I have recently learned of an article in Interview Magazine. I did not see it, however I ordered a copy so I can review the article which I understand refers to your activity during the Willkie campaign.

As I recall, you were very active for Wendell Willkie in 1940. As you may or may not be aware, I traveled with him and served as his personal representative during the campaign.

Time has the unpleasant habit of separating us from many of those old timers. However, I did maintain a close relationship during
